

Stanton Furniture

HOME: Best unfinished furniture

For more than 45 years, Stanton Furniture has been selling solid wood furniture to the Portland area. You won't find any particleboard in either of their two locations, only the fresh smell of solid woods. These family-owned stores are rooted in this community and have a strong reputation built on selling quality unfinished and finished furniture. They have the state's largest selection of unfinished furniture, and have a piece that would look good in every room in your house. These are stores to take your time exploring. There is so much variety to be found, don't be surprised if you end up spending an entire afternoon just browsing. Internet users can visit Stanton's website for a partial catalogue of their various offerings, as well as tips on how to stain and protect your new unfinished purchases. Stanton Furniture knows how to make your house look and feel more like home. Come see their showroom for great ideas.

10800 SE 82nd Avenue, Portland OR

(503) 654-5282

10175 SW Beaverton-Hillsdale Highway, Beaverton OR

(503) 644-7333

www.stantonfurniture.com

Pico's Worldwide

FASHION: Best eco-friendly clothing

Walk through the doors of Pico's Worldwide in historic downtown Jacksonville and you will be greeted by Pico the bearded collie, store proprietor and mascot. He is just one of the many fantastic finds you will be pleased to discover at this unique shop, established in 2004 by Bethany Mulholland and Michael Richardson. Pico's is your southern Oregon source for hemp, organic cotton, recycled cotton and other eco-friendly clothing, as well as a large selection of other environmentally and socially responsible products, both imported and domestic. Shop Pico's for a full complement of home accents and personal accessories such as jewelry, handbags, scarves, genuine Panama hats, soap, soy candles, weavings, lamps, wall decorations, world music and a wide variety of other fun and functional products. When you're in Jacksonville, remember to leave plenty of time to visit Pico's Worldwide. You will need it to explore all of the interesting items that'll tickle your fancy.

160 E California Street, Jacksonville OR

(541) 899-4400